BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

INVESTIGATION OF SERVICE AND )	ADMINISTRATIVE
RATES TO KRS 278.485 GAS )	CASE NO. 342
CUSTOMERS )

O R D E R

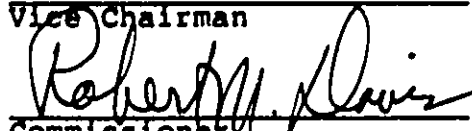

On January 1, 1993, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission discontinued its use of maximum lawful ceiling prices as part of its deregulation of the natural gas industry. KRS 278.485 gives this Commission jurisdiction to approve rates for farm tap service. Pending further review and Orders of this Commission on appropriate standards to be used in setting and approving farm tap rates, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that all rates for farm tap service shall remain fixed at the level in effect on the date of this Order unless approval to adjust rates is granted by this Commission on a case-by-case basis.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 24th day of February, 1993.
